30 September 2013

Esteemed Colleagues, Friends, and Clarinetists,

It is my pleasure to announce the inaugural Artist in Residence/Fort Lewis College Clarinet Day on March 8, 2014 and we hope you will consider attending. We are very excited to be hosting internationally renowned, and frequent The Clarinet contributor, Dr. Timothy S. Phillips. Dr. Phillips routinely performs throughout the United States and Europe as well as hosts Clarinet Corner, a weekly radio broadcast featuring clarinet performances, pedagogy and interviews with some of the masters of our instrument.

We will offer the following events, all of which are at no cost to you or your students and will occur in the Roshong Recital Hall, in Jones Hall, on the Fort Lewis College Campus:

10:00-11:30 AM	Welcoming Address/Potpourri Recital
11:30- 2:00 PM	Vendors from local and national music suppliers will be available for discussions and to help you or your students
2:00-3:30 PM	Master Class with Dr. Phillips
4:00-5:00 PM	Clarinet Choir Reading Session
7:00 PM	Dr. Phillips and Friends Recital

The Potpourri Recital is open to students or professionals who wish to perform. Teachers, please ensure your students are well prepared. Clarinetists may perform with a pianist if they wish, but will need to supply their own accompanist. Please return the following form for each performance by February 1, 2014 so that we may select as many as possible and publish the program. Participation in this event is free.

The Master Class is open also to the public. Dr. Phillips will work with as many students as possible so that each student has at least 15 minutes including performance and working time with the artist. Clarinetists of all abilities are welcome to submit an application and we will accept as many as possible. Clarinetists may perform with or without piano accompaniment though performers will supply their own accompanists, if desired.

The Clarinet Choir Reading session will be hosted by Dr. Joshua R. Mietz and will be a fun time to share music with each other. Music will be provided. Clarinetists of all abilities are welcome.

The event will conclude with a recital performance by Dr. Phillips and friends. Admission is $15 for adults and $5 for students.

We hope you will consider joining us at this event. Please complete the attached form by February 1, 2014 to express your interest in attending the event.

Sincerely,

Dr. Joshua R. Mietz
