

FLC Continuing Education & the Four Corners Equine Academy Scholarship Announcement

~ A Limited Number of Scholarships are Available ~

Equine Program

Winter Semester: January 11 – April 23, 2010

Earn College Credit for AG 190 Coursework; 3 credits per class

- ☆ Anatomy & Physiology I II and III
- ☆ Equine Feeds and Feeding
- ☆ Equine Genetics and Reproduction
- ☆ Hoof Anatomy & Management
- ☆ Lameness & Intro to Alternative Therapies
- ☆ Riding Principles I, II, and III
- ☆ Training Techniques I and II

Course schedules are flexible according to students' schedules.
Earn up to 14 credit hours of electives toward a minor in Agriculture

To create a self-constructed a major in an Agriculture related field, contact Instructor Beth LaShell or Dr. Phil Shuler.

Classes are held off-campus at Weaselskin Equestrian Center, located about 20 minutes south of Durango.

Visit us on the web at www.4cequineacademy.org and <http://continued.fortlewis.edu> / Local Classes / Equine Program

To Register, Contact:

Continuing Education
Phone (970) 247-7385 or Email continued@fortlewis.edu

School horses are provided for students to use during classes

Through a partnership with Fort Lewis College, Colorado's newest college level Equine Program educates students in balanced riding, harmonious training, and current equine science. Participation in this program requires a serious commitment to equine studies and transportation to Weaselskin.