Colorado Transfer Scholarship Guidelines & Application

Eligibility Criteria

- Students must be Colorado residents transferring from a Colorado community or junior college and admitted to Fort Lewis College.
- Students must have completed a minimum of 24 semester credits by Fort Lewis College registration.

Selection Criteria

- Awards are based on current cumulative college GPA, Colorado Transfer Scholarship Application, college transcripts, and current class schedule.

Value of Scholarship

- 50% in-state tuition

Maintenance Provisions

Recipients of the Colorado Transfer Scholarship can renew their scholarship for up to eight (8) terms or until the first Fort Lewis College baccalaureate degree is received with the following provisions:

- Recipients must attend both the fall and winter semesters at Fort Lewis College. Award disbursements are made in the fall and winter semesters only.
- Recipients must earn a minimum 30 credit hours each year (fall and winter semesters combined), and maintain at least a 3.0 Fort Lewis College GPA.
- Recipients who apply for need-based financial aid will receive additional correspondence from the Office of Financial Aid. All scholarship offers are counted as part of your financial aid package.
