

Native American Center Peer Tutoring Program

Free to All Students

The Native American Center offers Peer Tutoring in the following subject areas:

MATH: TRS 82 Introduction to Algebra
TRS 92 Intermediate Algebra
MATH 110 College Algebra

CHEM: CHEM 150 Fundamentals of Chemistry 1
CHEM 151 Fundamentals of Chemistry 11
CHEM 250 Organic Chemistry 1
CHEM 251 Organic Chemistry 11

COMP: COMP 125 Reading in College
COMP 126 Writing in College
COMP 150 Reading and Writing in College
COMP 250 Academic Inquiry and Writing

GENERAL WRITING ASSISTANCE:

Our tutors can assist you with your writing for most any course.

NAVAJO LANGUAGE:

If you have some grounding in the Navajo language, we have a tutor who can help you hone your skills.

COMPUTER USAGE:

If you need assistance with basic computer usage and learning how to use FLC's computer resources and processes, we have tutors who are eager to help.

ALSO: As needed, NAC tutoring may be available in Accounting, American Indian Studies, and other areas. If you need tutoring in areas the NAC does not cover, we are happy to refer you to other campus tutoring programs that can help.

How to Use NAC Tutoring Services

To schedule a session with a NAC Peer Tutor, contact Tutor Coordinator Ron Pevny at 247-7292 or pevny_r@fortlewis.edu. Additionally, we offer drop-in tutoring during the weeks before mid-terms and finals.