

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

Title and Series of Job: Biological Science Technician GS-0404

These are temporary positions (1039 hours). Incumbents must operate a government vehicle; a valid state driver's license is required. Seasonal housing is available.

Grade and Hourly Rate: GS-4 ($12.36) or GS-5 ($13.83)

Location of Job: Great Basin National Park

Start date: May 15, 2009 (flexible)

End date: Sept. 30, 2009 (flexible)

Park Contacts: Tod B. Williams – Chief Resource Management (775) 234-7331 x223
Bryan Hamilton – Wildlife Biologist x255
Laura Belica – Fisheries Biologist x232

E-mail Address: tod_williams@nps.gov
bryan_hamilton@nps.gov
laura_belica@nps.gov

1. Brief description of duties: Work on a variety of projects, such as fisheries to include Bonneville cutthroat trout and non-salmonid fish reintroduction efforts which includes: fish population surveys; habitat assessments; reintroductions to suitable habitats; water quality assessments; and macro invertebrates surveys; wildlife inventories and surveys, which includes: bighorn sheep telemetry and surveys; small mammal and reptile population surveys; and habitat condition assessments.
2. Preferred academic course of study: Wildlife Management; Fisheries; Mammalogy; Plant Ecology; Botany; Aquatic Ecology or Natural Resource Management.
3. Location: Great Basin National Park is a 77,100-acre mountain park in east central Nevada. Location is considered remote. The nearest full service community, Ely Nevada, is 60 miles away.

Please send a resume and written verification from your advisor that you are returning to school in the fall to:

Great Basin National Park
Attention: Personnel Specialist
100 Great Basin National Park
Baker, NV 89311