Policy Statement

Fort Lewis College faculty, staff, students, and visitors who are nursing and/or lactating, but do not have a private office or access to a private space, have the option of using one of our designated private rooms on campus during business hours. Designated Lactation Spaces include:

- Schlessman Family Hall (SFH) Rm 1046
- Education Business Hall (EBH) Rm 155

Nursing and/or lactating individuals are responsible for bringing what they need and cleaning up after each use. Storage for milk and equipment is unavailable in these spaces. Rooms are available on an as-needed basis, if both campus rooms are in use, please contact one of the below individuals to find you another space on campus:

1. Kate Suazo, Title IX Coordinator cmsuazo@fortlewis.edu
2. Erin Beezley, HR Director ebeezley@fortlewis.edu

Reason for Policy

Provide designated and private lactation room(s) for faculty, staff, students and visitors who are nursing and/or lactating.
