Fort Lewis College Foundation
Instructions for Making Security Donations

FLCF Broker: UBS
Clearing Account Number (also known as the DTC Number): 0221
Account Name: Fort Lewis College Foundation
Account Number: 6V00782

Per IRS regulations, a donation of securities is deemed to take place the day the securities are transferred into the FLC Foundation account. It can take a number of days for a security transfer to take place.

In order for a donation to be considered a 2012 donation, the transfer of securities will need to be initiated by Thursday December 27, 2012 so the securities will be in the FLC Foundation account on Monday December 31, 2012.

In order for the donation to be properly recorded, donors should send a separate communication detailing the securities being donated and the fund they wish their donation to be deposited in, as this information is not communicated between brokers.
