USAC Heredia, Costa Rica
Summer Session II 2016
Study with Fort Lewis Professor: Dr. Janneli Miller

Gender and Health
ANTH/WS/CHS, 400-level, 3 credits
- Examine gender as it applies to health and wellness of body, mind, and spirit. Discuss a holistic approach to how gender impacts health for men and women at all phases of their lives.
- Combine with a course on Latin America and its cultures, cuisine, or the Cuba field study.

Program Information

Host University: Universidad Nacional de Costa Rica
App. Deadline: May 1
Minimum GPA: 2.5

- Enjoy easy access to the cultural, historic, and urban highlights of the capital city, San José, the Pacific Ocean, and the rest of Costa Rica and Central America.
- Select courses ranging from four levels of Spanish to ecological studies, with intensive language options, electives in several disciplines, a field study course to Cuba.
- Explore interesting and beautiful areas of Costa Rica on field trips.

For more Information visit usac.unr.edu
@studyabroadusac
Facebook
Twitter
YouTube

USAC
Your Gateway to the World