In accordance with federal student aid satisfactory academic progress policy, students who complete academic requirements for a program/degree, but do not yet have their degree or certificate, are not eligible for further additional federal student aid funds. Therefore, students appealing due to exceeding maximum time are only allowed to request aid for the courses necessary to complete their program and/or degree.

List only courses needed for the most efficient path to student’s program/degree completion.
(Courses for a dual major, minor, certificates, or endorsements are not allowed on this plan.)
