Pueblo Feast Day
Friday, March 7th 2014
A FREE PUBLIC EVENT

Agenda

8:00-9:00 Continental Breakfast

9:15 -10:00 Introduction with Master of Ceremonies: Mariah Gachupin (Jemez)
Welcome by: President Dene Kay Thomas

Traditional Prayer by: A Pueblo Governor

10:00 -11:00 Workshop #1, Traditional Food Preparation (Cultural Kitchen) by: Grandma Gachupin (Jemez)

11:00 -12:00 Traditional Performers Location: Ballroom
- Laguna Eagle Dance
- Acoma Buffalo Dance
- Jemez Feast Dance

12:15 -1:15 Lunch Location: FLC San Dining

1:30-2:30 Concurrent Workshops #2 and #3 (See Below Right)

2:30-3:30 Speaker Presentation Diane Reyna (Taos)
Pueblo History and Pueblo Revolt Location: Ballroom

3:30 - 4:30 Concurrent Workshops #2 and #3 (See Below)

4:45 -5:30 Modern Performers Location: Ballroom
- New Tribe
- Po 10 Cee
- Denial Hoop Dance (FLC student dance/singer)

5:30 - 6:00 Break

6:15 - 7:00 Traditional Foods Dinner Location: Ballroom
7:00 - 7:30 Ricardo Cate '06 (Santo Domingo)

7:30 - Close Robert Mirabel (Taos)

VENDORS

The Pueblo Feast Day Program is made possible by grants from: The John and Sophie Ottens Foundation, the George and Eleanor Kambouris Foundation, the Native American Center and the following departments and programs: Anthropology, Center for Southwest Studies, Diversity Programming, Sociology, Reed Library, KDUR, Leadership Center, Marc Program, and more!

Please contact Yvonne Bilinski at 970-247-7222 or Lisa Cate at 970-247-7221 for further information.