As of Aug 14, 2020, face coverings that do NOT meet this requirement include: buffs, neck-gaiters, any mask that incorporates a valve that is designed to facilitate easy exhaling, mesh or lace masks, or masks with openings, holes, visible gaps in the design or material, or vents.
- Abide by physical distancing
- Follow cleaning protocols
- Adhere to the COVID-19 travel related protocols
- Communicate exposure to COVID-19 in a timely manner
- Follow isolation and/or quarantining protocols
- Cease attending class, events, work, or FLC functions while sick
- Respect signage, barriers, and environmental controls
- Remain out of a residential or other off-limit areas
- Participate in contact tracing
- Monitor symptoms
- Abide by official College expectations, directives, and departmental expectations related to COVID-19
- Not engage in spreading misinformation related to COVID-19

NOTICE

Notice of a concern may be provided verbally or in writing.

ADJUDICATION

Violations of this addendum will be handled through the Standard Resolution Process described here. Students will have opportunity to share relevant information, and the facts will be investigated by a hearing officer. Cases that may result in suspension from the College will follow the process outlined in the full Grievance Procedure.

SANCTION

Sanctions will be determined by the designee of the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and outcomes are not appealable. The range of sanctions include warnings, probation, educational requirements, campus service, removal from campus housing, removal from student employment position and suspension from the College.
