The Department of Modern Languages is accepting applications for a part-time, Adjunct Instructor position in French.

Duties:
- We are seeking an instructor for our lower-division French language courses.
  Position would begin Fall 2015.

Minimum Qualifications:
- Master’s degree in field relevant to the teaching of French at the college level

Desired Qualifications:
- Experience teaching French at the college level

Compensation scale:
Part-time instructors are paid per credit, and our French courses are currently four credits each. Compensation is based on educational background and experience. For those holding a Master’s degree, the per-course compensation would amount to a total of $3200 ($800/credit) per semester.

Application Process:
Please send an email to jbkirkpatrick@fortlewis.edu with:
- A letter of application addressing how you meet the qualification
- A résumé (as a Word or PDF attachment, please)

Please write “French part-time search” in the subject line.

Finalists will be asked to submit a list of references and copies transcripts (originals required for employment), and may be asked to do a teaching demonstration. A successful candidate must pass a background check per State law.

Applications received by May 23, 2015 will be given full consideration. The position will remain open until filled.

*************

Fort Lewis College does not discriminate on the basis of race, age, color, religion, national origin, gender, political beliefs, gender identity, gender expression, disability, sexual orientation, political beliefs, or veteran status. Accordingly, equal opportunity for employment, admission, and education shall be extended to all persons. The College shall promote equal opportunity, equal treatment, and affirmative action efforts to increase the diversity of students, faculty, and staff. People from under-represented groups are encouraged to apply.