The AACSB accredited School of Business Administration at Fort Lewis College in Durango, Colorado is pleased to invite the submission of applications from qualified candidates for a tenure track position at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor. The start date will be mid-August, 2016.

Position Responsibilities:
Teaching at the undergraduate level with a standard teaching load of 9-12 credits per semester. Student mentoring, not advising, is required. Fort Lewis College has non-faculty success coaches who perform student advising activities. The marketing area is committed to developing forward thinking and innovative curricula related to the interesting and enjoyable changing world of marketing. Successful applicants will be expected to engage in service activities such as student clubs, college committees, etc. and maintain an active research stream.

Required Qualifications:
- Ph.D. / D.B.A. in marketing or closely-related discipline
- Proven record of performance and quality college teaching
- Active program of scholarly activity

Preferred Qualifications:
- Ph.D. / D.B.A. in marketing or related discipline from an AACSB-accredited institution, (ABD with promise of degree completion by December, 2016 considered)
- Successful candidates will have a strong commitment to high-quality teaching with proven teaching excellence and classroom experience
- Relevant business experience is a definite plus
- Interest in at least 2 of the following areas: digital marketing, marketing research, or services marketing

Salary:
Salary and benefits are competitive with AACSB accredited baccalaureate only colleges of similar size.

School and College Description:
The marketing area offers a stand-alone major and minor marketing program. There are currently approximately 80 marketing majors. It is accompanied in the School of Business Administration by multiple concentrations within degrees in business administration, economics, and accounting. We are especially interested in candidates who can contribute to the diversity and excellence of the academic community through their teaching, research, and service.
Fort Lewis College was founded in 1911 and is part of the State of Colorado higher education. It is a four-year, undergraduate liberal arts college. It is a member of the Council of Public Liberal Arts Colleges (COPLAC). It has an enrollment of approximately 3800 of which 30% of the students are Native American students and 10% Hispanic. Approximately 625 majors in the School of Business Administration. The School of Business Administration has been AACSB Internationally accredited for over 40 years and has 19 full-time faculty members and 7 part-time faculty members.

Area Description:
Durango is a multicultural community located in the San Juan Valley of the incredibly beautiful and majestic Rocky Mountains and surrounded by multiple lakes. Local mountain peaks reach over 14,000 ft. A mild four seasons allow numerous opportunities for a large variety of popular outdoor activities and sports such as skiing, fishing, hunting, camping, biking, hiking, golfing, boating, kayaking, etc. Durango is very a popular tourist destination. It is very cosmopolitan for its size and has direct airline connections to Denver, Phoenix, and Dallas.

Applications:
Applications received by September 18th, 2015 will be given full consideration. The position will remain open until filled.

Interested candidates are encouraged to meet with Dr. Simon Walls at the August 2015 AMA Summer Marketing Educators’ Conference in Chicago.

Completed application packet is to include:
(1) Cover letter of application detailing how you meet required and preferred qualification with desired rank you are seeking
(2) Curriculum vitae
(3) Three letters of reference
(4) Any available teaching evaluations

Please email completed application packet to: MarketingSearchCommittee@fortlewis.edu

Questions about the position and application process may be directed to:
Simon Walls, Associate Professor of Marketing, Search Chair
Direct Line: 970.247.7204
Personal Mobile: 970.946.1661
Email: walls_s@fortlewis.edu

The successful candidate will be required to provide official college transcripts. Degrees earned from an education institution outside of the United States are required to be evaluated by a professional credentialing service provider approved by National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES). Employment is contingent upon a satisfactory background check per State law.

Fort Lewis College does not discriminate on the basis of race, age, color, religion, national origin, gender, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, political belief, or veteran status. Accordingly, equal opportunity for employment, administration, and education shall be extended to all persons. The college shall promote equal opportunity, equal treatment, and affirmative action efforts to increase the diversity of students, faculty, and staff. People from under-represented groups are encouraged to apply. Fort Lewis College offers domestic partner benefits.